Nationwide Insurance and American Nurses Association Announce Business Alliance

Affinity relationship offers potential savings to ANA member nurses

SILVER SPRING, MD — Today, Nationwide Insurance and the American Nurses Association (ANA), the largest nursing organization in the U.S., announce an affinity partnership that will offer ANA member potential savings on insurance policies delivered through Nationwide.

Through the agreement, ANA members can receive substantial discounts on auto insurance, as well as additional multi-policy savings when holding a homeowner's or other policy through Nationwide. "We are constantly looking at ways to add value for our members," said American Nurses Association CEO Marla J. Weston, PhD, RN. "This relationship gives us a chance to offer our members exclusive policy discounts above and beyond what they could obtain on their own, through one of the most trusted names in the insurance industry. We are proud to partner with Nationwide Insurance in this endeavor."

“This partnership brings together two organizations who have demonstrated a strong commitment to the communities we serve,” said James Gaddy, vice president, Nationwide Insurance. “We look forward to serving the association’s membership to help them with their insurance needs.”

About American Nurses Association

The American Nurses Association (ANA) is the only full-service professional organization representing the interests of the nation's 3.1 million registered nurses through its constituent member nurses associations, its organizational affiliates, and its workforce advocacy affiliate, the Center for American Nurses. The ANA advances the nursing profession by fostering high standards of nursing practice, promoting the rights of nurses in the workplace, projecting a positive and realistic view of nursing, and by lobbying the Congress and regulatory agencies on health care issues affecting nurses and the public.
