

Nightingale's Legacy: The Evolution of American Nurse Leaders

Sue Johnson, PhD, RN, NE-BC

Chapter 3. Mary Eliza Mahoney: America's First Trained Black Nurse

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Excellence in Care Delivery

Chapter 4. Lillian Wald: Urban Crusader

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Living Cultural Diversity
Leveraging Managed Care

Chapter 5. Mary Adelaide Nutting: Nurse Scholar

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Promoting Collegiate Education

Chapter 6. Lavinia Lloyd Dock: Activist and Historian

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Legislative Advocacy

Chapter 7. Annie Warburton Goodrich: Pacifist and Patriot

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Health Promotion

Chapter 8. Isabel Hampton Robb: Nursing Visionary

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Ethical Behavior

Chapter 9. Mary Breckinridge: Pioneer in Maternal-Child Advocacy

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Political Savvy

Chapter 10. Margaret Sanger: Family Planning Activist

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Importance of Statistical Analysis

Introduction

Chapter 1. Linda Richards: A Nightingale Nurse

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Individual Recordkeeping System for Patients
Global Collaboration

Chapter 2. Clara Barton: America's Florence Nightingale

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
The Importance of Delegation
Advocacy for Disaster Relief

Nightingale's Legacy: The Evolution of American Nurse Leaders

Sue Johnson, PhD, RN, NE-BC

Chapter 11. Estelle Massey Riddle (Osborne): Administrator and Change Agent

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Change Agent

Chapter 12. Mabel Keaton Staupers: Organizer and Negotiator

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Dealing with Difficult People

Chapter 13. Dr. Mary Elizabeth Carnegie: Educator and Editor

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Contribution to Professional Literature

Chapter 14. Susie Walking Bear Yellowtail: Grandmother of American Indian Nurses

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Importance of Assessment

Chapter 15. Dr. Madeleine Leininger: Founder of Transcultural Nursing

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Caring and Culture

Chapter 16. Virginia Henderson: First Lady of Nursing

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Patient-Centered Care

Chapter 17. Dr. Luther Christman: Nursing Visionary

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Innovation

Chapter 18. Dr. Richard Carmona: "Always a Nurse"

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Courage

Chapter 19. Rev. Dr. Eugene Sawicki: Priest and Nurse

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Spirituality

Chapter 20. Dr. Peter Buerhaus: Nursing Workforce Scholar

Implications for Nurse Leaders Today and in the Future:
Practice Nursing Economic Accountability

Epilogue

Index