

Contents – Guide to Nursing’s Social Policy Statement: Understanding the Profession from Social Contract to Social Covenant

Introduction: Where We Are Going and How We Intend To Get There

Chapter 1. Social Contract Theory

Nursing’s Social Policy Statement and Nursing’s Social Contract

A Short History of Social Contract Theory: Understanding the Unwritten Social Arrangement It Creates

The 16 Elements of the Social Contract: Reciprocal Expectations Between Nursing and Society

Chapter 2. Nursing as Profession

Nursing as an Occupation, Vocation, Calling, and Profession

Occupation and Vocation, Livelihood and Calling

The Emergence of Professions

Some Approaches to Defining Profession

Two Approaches to the Role of Professions in Society

Nursing as a Profession

Chapter 3. Broken Professions and How to Mend Them

Professions and the New Economy

Professions: Breaking Faith with the Public and in Breach of Contract

Citizenship in Nursing

Civic Professionalism and Nursing

Developing Civic Professionalism Through Education

The Necessity of a Liberal Education

Chapter 4. Nursing: A Covenant of Care

Educational Formation, Ethical Comportment, and Professional Identity

Civic Professionalism Beyond the Bedside

The Functions of Social Ethics

Cognitive Apprenticeship for Political Involvement

Globalization

Global Citizenship and Cosmopolitanism

Meaning and Value Structures and Power Structures

The Adequacy of Social Contract as a Framework

Toward a More Adequate Framework

Nursing and Supererogation

Nursing and Self-Interest

Nursing and the Common Good

From Social Contract to Social Covenant

Of Contracts and Covenants

The Donative Element of Covenant

A History of Covenant

Nursing’s Social Covenant

