DESCRIPTION OF THE INNOVATION (Page 6 of 7)

Please be patient as the text input boxes load.

INNOVATION definition, 2019 Magnet Application Manual (page 151): "Innovation is the application of creativity or problem solving that results in a widely adopted strategy, product, or service that meets a need in a new and different way. Innovations are about improvement in quality, cost effectiveness, or efficiency" (Keys et al 2015, 1674).

D1. Describe how the innovation is the "...application of creativity or problem solving that results in a widely adopted strategy, product, or service that meets a need in a new and different way." *

D2. Describe how nursing and the interprofessional staff in the organization were involved in the development of the innovation. *

D3. State the existing and/or projected benefits from the implementation of the innovation. *

D4a. Indicate the planned or existing measure(s) of effectiveness and/or performance target(s) used to assess the impact (e.g., outcome measure(s) to demonstrate improvement in quality, cost effectiveness, or efficiency) of the innovation. NOTE: If you prefer to upload a document please do so below and indicate "uploaded" in this required field. *

D4b. Optional: Upload Word or PDF document to indicate the planned or existing measure(s) of effectiveness and/or performance target(s) used to assess the impact (e.g., outcome measure(s) to demonstrate improvement in quality, cost effectiveness, or efficiency) of the innovation.

D5. Supporting evidence: Please upload a one-page annotated bibliography (APA Format) to reflect the literature review conducted in conjunction with the innovation described in the nomination. *

D6. Select: Please upload the relevant document for the innovation.

D7. Select: Please upload the relevant document for the innovation.
Completed nominations must be received by midnight (ET) on Monday June 24, 2019. The submission must be made electronically. Winners will be notified before September 12, 2019. The Magnet Prize will be presented during the ANCC National Magnet Conference in Orlando, Florida, October 10 - 12, 2019.
