Migrant Children and Families – Information and Responses*

Learn About -

Health and Other Needs of Migrant Children and Families

Immigration Law and Policy, and the Rights of Immigrants

Comprehensive information about immigration law and enforcement in the U.S., including opportunity to sign up for regular updates via newsletter from the National Immigration Law Center https://www.nilc.org/

Dos and Don’ts of Bystander Intervention, from the American Friends Service Committee https://www.afsc.org/bystanderintervention

Volunteer Opportunities and Humanitarian Aid Programs

Volunteer Opportunities for Health Care Providers, from #standwithimmigrants https://www.standwithimmigrants.org/volunteer_opportunities_for_health_care_providers

Please Note: This resource sheet is based on an internet scan performed in July 2019. ANA has not endorsed any organizations or activities related to assisting immigrants or responding to crises at U.S. borders.
Information about volunteering at the border, from Annunciation House, a nonprofit relief agency in El Paso https://annunciationhouse.org/volunteer/

Nursing careers with Doctors Without Borders https://www.doctorswithoutborders.org/careers/work-overseas/find-role/registered-nurses-nurse-practitioners

Humanitarian efforts sponsored by Kino Border Initiative, a nonprofit organization offering assistance and advocacy at the Mexico-Arizona border https://www.kinoborderinitiative.org/humanitarian-aid/

Key Federal Agencies

Office of Refugee Resettlement (Department of Health and Human Services) https://www.acf.hhs.gov/orr/state-programs-annual-overview

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement https://www.ice.gov/

Please Note: This resource sheet is based on an internet scan performed in July 2019. ANA has not endorsed any organizations or activities related to assisting immigrants or responding to crises at U.S. borders.